

Turkish Culture & Cappadocia Istanbul 2008

"Experience the harmony and diversity from 10,000 years of civilizations"

Join our specially organized Culture and language studies program starting at our Istanbul Levent Branch school and giving you a chance to visit Cappadocia, with a weekend get away.

Cappadocia, the homeland of Saint George, fairy chimneys, the underground cities mentioned in Xenophon's Anabasis and the greatest concentration of Byzantine cave churches with remarkable in-situ frescos. Don't miss the Hittite capital Hattusha near the ritual centre Yazilikaya and Alacahoyuk. Other amazing places include Catal Hoyuk where the Neolithic Revolution took place and people worshiped the Mother Goddess, ancient Gordion where King Midas ruled and Alexander the Great later conquered, the richest unexcavated burial mound of the Comagene Kingdom on Mount Nemrut, the towns where Abraham and Saint Paul were born, Mount Ararat where Noah's Ark landed, Seljuk Caravanserais on the Silk Road, Ottoman mosques, and witness the influence of all these traditions on the customs of people today.

From April to December 2008 EF Turkish Centre runs a new program - Turkish Language & Cappadocia Studies in Istanbul with a weekend get away to Cappadocia – where religions of many civilizations have interacted - included in the (TLRS).
