Programme: A-LEVEL – 15 hours in mini-groups (Exam Revision Course)

Objectives:

- To improve listening, speaking, reading and writing skills
- To revise grammar and build vocabulary
- To train for specific examination tasks (presenting a topic, writing a letter, narratives, planning an essay, summarizing, listening activities, etc.)

Minimum Level Required: Intermediate level (B1).

Typical Student Profile: British or foreign students currently studying French at AS or A2 level.

Duration: 1 week.

Dates and Schedule: During half-term dates, Easter and summer holidays.

15 hours: 3 hours every morning, 5 days a week (9am–12am Tuesday to Friday and 10am–1pm Monday).

On the first day, students are asked to arrive at the school at 9am for a short oral test (a written test will have been sent to each participant prior to the course starting date).

Course Structure: Mini-groups of between 3 and 6 students of similar ability in French in a classroom environment with appropriate learning equipment.

Methodology: Teachers make use of a wide range of materials to build up students' confidence and maximise their progress: role plays, authentic documents, set literary texts, multiple-choice questions, etc. Homework is set every evening. Relevant manuals are supplied.

Evaluation: Students receive an end-of-course certificate. Upon request, an individual assessment report can be sent to the students' families.

Price:

Price for the week: 500 € (15 hours of lessons) <sup>(1)</sup>

- <sup>(1)</sup> The price includes a €80 registration fee to cover administration costs and books. This fee is valid for 1 year.

Terms and Conditions: Cancellations or postponements are not permitted once the week has started.

Programme: ABITUR – 20 hours in mini-groups (Exam Revision Course)

Objectives:

- To improve the 4 main linguistic skills: speaking, reading, writing and listening
- To revise key grammar points, extend vocabulary and improve pronunciation
- To focus on specific examination tasks: writing essays, discussing authentic documents, summarizing and analysing set literary texts and topics related to French culture and society.

Minimum Level Required: Intermediate level (B1).

Typical Student Profile: Students currently preparing for their French Abitur and international equivalents.

Duration: 1 week.

Dates and Schedule: During Easter, summer and winter holidays.

20 hours in mini-groups: 3 hours every morning, 5 days a week (9am–12am Tuesday to Friday and 10am-1pm Monday) and 5 hours on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons (1.30pm-4pm).

On the first day, students are asked to arrive at the school at 9am for a short oral test (a written test will have been sent to each participant prior to the course starting date). After the test a complimentary breakfast is served from 9.30am to 10am. Classes start at 10am.

Course Structure: Mini-groups of between 3 and 6 students of similar ability in French in a classroom environment with appropriate learning equipment.

Methodology: Focus is given to developing the different forms of writing tested in the exam. Students will take a full mock examination under strict exam conditions and will receive a great deal of individual feedback, correction and advice. Homework is set every evening. Relevant manuals are supplied.

Evaluation: Students receive an end-of-course certificate. Upon request, an individual assessment report can be sent to the students' families.
